5. Investment Objectives, Focus and Approach

5.1 Investment Objectives

The Sub-Fund aims to deliver capital growth and income over a three to five year period after fees have been deducted by investing in a diversified range of assets in emerging markets worldwide.

5.2 Investment Focus and Approach

The Sub-Fund is actively managed and invests at least two-thirds of its assets directly in equity and equity related securities, fixed income securities and Alternative Asset Classes of emerging markets countries worldwide or companies which derive a significant proportion of their revenues or profits from emerging markets countries worldwide.

The Sub-Fund may actively allocate its assets in Money Market Investments and currencies specially to mitigate losses in falling markets.

The Sub-Fund may invest:

- in excess of 50% of its assets in below investment grade (fixed and floating rate) securities (being securities with a credit rating below investment grade as measured by Standard & Poor's or any equivalent grade of other credit rating agencies) and unrated securities;
- in excess of 50% of its assets in emerging market debt (fixed and floating rate) securities;
- up to 20% of its assets in asset backed securities and mortgage-backed securities;
- up to 10% of its assets in Alternative Asset Classes (as defined in Appendix III of the Luxembourg Prospectus) indirectly through Exchange Traded Funds, REITs or open-ended Investment Funds; and
- up to 10% of its assets in open-ended Investment Funds.

The Sub-Fund may invest directly in China B-Shares and China H-Shares and may invest less than 25% of its assets (on a net basis) directly or indirectly through derivatives in China A-Shares through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect. The Sub-Fund may also invest in mainland China through Regulated Markets (including the CIBM via Bond Connect).

The Sub-Fund may use derivatives (including total return swaps), long and short, with the aim of achieving investment gains, reducing risk or managing the Sub-Fund more efficiently. Where the Sub-Fund uses total return swaps and contracts for difference, the underlying consists of instruments in which the Sub-Fund may invest according to its Investment Objective and Investment Strategy. In particular, total return swaps and contracts for difference may be used to gain long and short exposure on equity and equity related securities, fixed and floating rate securities and commodity indices. The gross exposure of total return swaps and contracts for difference will not exceed 30% and is expected to remain within the range of 0% to 20% of the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund. In certain circumstances this proportion may be higher. The Sub-Fund may hold cash.

The Sub-Fund maintains a higher overall sustainability score than 50% MSCI Emerging Market Index (USD), 16.7% JPM EMBI Index EM Hard Currency (USD), 16.7% JPM GBI Emerging Market Index - EM Local (USD), 16.7% JPM CEMB Index (USD), based on the Investment Manager's rating criteria. More details on the investment process used to achieve this can be found in the Sub-Fund Characteristics section on the Prospectus.

The Sub-Fund does not directly invest in certain activities, industries or groups of issuers above the limits listed under "Sustainability Information" on the Sub-Fund's webpage, accessed via www.schroders.com/en/lu/private-investor/gfc.

Sustainability Criteria

The Investment Manager applies governance and sustainability criteria when selecting investments for the Sub-Fund. The investable universe is assessed using a number of proprietary tools, as well as external rating services. The Investment Manager will assess companies against a variety of environmental, social and governance metrics, taking into account issues such as climate change, environmental performance, labour standards and board composition. The Investment Manager will decide whether an investment is eligible for inclusion taking into account the overall ESG score. The multi-asset nature of the Fund means that the Investment Manager will analyse the ESG scores across asset classes as an input into the asset allocation of the Fund. The Investment Manager may select investments, which it deems to contribute to one or more environmental or social objectives, provided that they do no significant harm to any other environmental or social objectives.

The sources of information used to perform the analysis include information provided by the companies, such as company sustainability reports and other relevant company material, as well as Schroders' proprietary sustainability tools and third-party data.

More details on the Investment Manager's approach to sustainability and its engagement with companies are available on the website www.schroders.com/en/lu/private-investor/strategic-capabilities/sustainability/disclosures.

The Investment Manager ensures that at least:

- 90% of equities issued by large companies domiciled in developed countries; fixed or floating rate securities and money market instruments with an investment grade credit rating; and sovereign debt issued by developed countries; and
- 75% of equities issued by large companies domiciled in emerging countries; equities issued by small and medium companies; fixed or floating rate securities and money market instruments with a high yield credit rating; and sovereign debt issued by emerging countries, held in the Sub-Fund's portfolio are rated against the sustainability criteria. For the purposes of this test, small companies are those with market capitalisation below €5 billion, medium companies are those between €5 billion and €10 billion and large companies are those above €10 billion.

5.3 Investor Profile

The ILP Sub-Fund is only suitable for potential investors who:

- Seek income and capital growth; and
- Understand the risks of investing directly in equity and equity related securities and fixed income securities of companies, fixed income securities of governments and government agencies, currencies and alternative assets worldwide or indirectly through funds and derivatives.

6. Central Provident Fund ("CPF") Investment Scheme

The ILP Sub-Fund is currently not included under the CPF Investment Scheme.

7. Risks

7.1 General Risks

7.1.1 Market Risk

The value of investments by the Sub-Fund may go up or down due to changing economic, political or market conditions, or due to an issuer's individual situation.

7.1.2 Liquidity Risk

The liquidity of the Sub-Fund may be limited if a significant portion of the assets of the Sub-Fund is to be sold to meet redemption requests in a short time frame. During this period, the portfolio allocation may be modified to prioritise liquidity. In difficult market conditions, the Sub-Fund may not be able to sell a security for full value or at all. This could affect performance and could cause the Sub-Fund to defer or suspend redemptions of its Shares.

7.1.3 Operational Risk

Failures at service providers could lead to disruptions of fund operations or losses.

7.1.4 Derivatives Risk

The Sub-Fund may use derivatives as part of the investment process. The use of futures, options, warrants, forwards, swaps or swap options involves increased risk. The Sub-Fund's ability to use such instruments successfully depends on the Investment Manager's (or where applicable, the Sub-Investment Manager's) ability to accurately predict movements in stock prices, interest rates, currency exchange rates or other economic factors and the availability of liquid markets. If the Investment Manager or the Sub-Investment Manager's predictions are wrong, or if the derivatives do not work as anticipated, the Sub-Fund could suffer greater losses than if the Sub-Fund had not used such instruments.

Each of the Schroder International Selection Fund Asian Dividend Maximiser, the Schroder International Selection Fund European Dividend Maximiser and the Schroder International Selection Fund Global Dividend Maximiser makes use of derivatives in a way that is fundamental to its investment objective. It is expected that the strategy will typically underperform a similar portfolio with no derivatives overlay in periods when the underlying stock prices are rising, and outperform when the underlying stock prices are falling.

7.1.5 Counterparty Risk

The counterparty to a derivative or other contractual agreement or synthetic financial product could become unable to honour its commitments to the Sub-Fund, potentially creating a partial or total loss for the Sub-Fund.

7.1.6 Currency Risk

The Sub-Fund can be exposed to different currencies. Changes in foreign exchange rates could create losses.

7.1.7 Benchmark Regulation

The London Interbank Offered Rate and other indices which are deemed "benchmarks" have been the subject of international and other regulatory guidance as well as proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective while others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, or to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any investments linked to a benchmark.

7.1.8 IBOR Reform

Regulatory and industry initiatives concerning Interbank Offered Rates (IBORs) may result in changes or modifications affecting investments referencing IBORs, including a need to determine or agree a substitute alternative reference rate (ARR,) and/or a need to determine or agree a spread to be added to or subtracted from, or to make other adjustments to, such ARR to approximate an IBOR equivalent rate, not all of which can be foreseen at the time a Sub-Fund enters into or acquires an IBOR-referencing investment.

7.1.9 Hedged Share Class Risks

The aim of a hedged Share Class is to provide an Investor with the performance returns of the Sub-Fund's investments by reducing the effects of exchange rate fluctuations between the Fund Currency and the Reference Currency. As a result the performance of hedged Share Classes aims to be similar to the performance of equivalent Share Classes in Fund Currency. The hedged Share Class will not remove the interest rate differences between the Fund Currency and Reference Currency as the pricing of the hedging transactions will, at least in part, reflect those interest rate differences. There is no assurance that the hedging strategies employed will be effective in fully eliminating the currency exposure to the Reference Currency thereby delivering performance differentials that are reflective only of interest rate differences adjusted for fees.

7.1.10 Sustainability Risks

The Investment Manager takes sustainability risks into account in the management of each Sub-Fund. A sustainability risk is an environmental, social or governance event or condition that, if it occurs, could cause an actual or a potential material negative impact on the value of an investment and the returns of the Sub-Fund. There is also the risk that new regulations, taxes or industry standards to protect or encourage sustainable businesses and practices may be introduced – such changes may negatively impact issuers that are poorly placed to adapt to new requirements.

The regulatory framework applying to sustainable products and sustainable investing is rapidly evolving. As such, the aims and investments of the Sub-Funds may be subject to change over time in order to comply with new requirements or applicable regulatory guidance.

7.2 Specific Risks

7.2.1 Emerging and frontier markets risk

Emerging markets, and especially frontier markets, generally carry greater political, legal, counterparty and operational risk.

7.2.2 Money Market and Deposit Risk

A failure of a deposit institution or an issuer of Money Market Investments could create losses.

7.2.3 Leverage Risk

The Sub-Fund uses derivatives for leverage, which makes it more sensitive to certain market or interest rate movements and may cause above-average volatility and risk of loss.

7.2.4 Equity Risk

Equity prices fluctuate daily, based on many factors including general, economic, industry or company news.

7.2.5 China Country Risk

Changes in China’s political, legal, economic or tax policies could cause losses or higher costs for the Sub-Fund.

7.2.6 Negative Yield Risk

When interest rates are very low or negative, the Sub-Fund’s yield may be zero or negative, and you may not get back all of your investment.

7.2.7 Credit Risk

A decline in the financial health of an issuer could cause the value of its bonds to fall or become worthless.

7.2.8 High Yield Bond Risk

High yield bonds (normally lower rated or unrated) generally carry greater market, credit and liquidity risk.

7.2.9 Interest Rate Risk

A rise in interest rates generally causes bond prices to fall.

7.2.10 Shanghai-Hong Kong/Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect risk

The Sub-Fund may be investing in China A-Shares via the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect which may entail additional clearing and settlement, regulatory, operational and counterparty risks. You should refer to the section headed “Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect” in Appendix II of the Luxembourg Prospectus for more details on these risks.

Any such arrangements must be made by the Investment Manager or the Sub-Investment Manager on terms commensurate with best market practice.

14. Conflicts of Interest

The Investment Managers, the Sub-Investment Managers, the Investment Advisers and the Singapore Representative may effect transactions in which the Investment Managers, the Sub-Investment Managers, the Investment Advisers or the Singapore Representative have, directly or indirectly, an interest which may involve a potential conflict with the Investment Managers', the Sub-Investment Managers', the Investment Advisers' or the Singapore Representative's duty to the Fund or relevant Sub-Fund. The Investment Managers, the Sub-Investment Managers, the Investment Advisers and the Singapore Representative (as the case may be) will ensure that such transactions are effected on terms which are not less favourable to the Fund or relevant Sub-Fund than if the potential conflict had not existed. Such potential conflicting interests or duties may arise because the Investment Managers, the Sub-Investment Managers, the Investment Advisers or the Singapore Representative may have invested directly or indirectly in the Fund or because the Singapore Representative may, in its capacity as manager for other collective investment schemes in Singapore, invest into any one or more of the Sub-Funds.

The Investment Managers and the Sub-Investment Managers may also have to deal with competing or conflicting interests between any of the Sub-Funds which may be managed by the same Investment Manager or Sub-Investment Manager. In such instance, the Investment Manager or the Sub-Investment Manager (as the case may be) will use reasonable endeavours at all times to act fairly and in the interests of the relevant Sub-Funds, taking into account the availability of cash and relevant investment guidelines of the Sub-Funds and ensuring that the securities bought and sold are allocated proportionally as far as possible among the Sub-Funds.
