

HSBC Insurance Chinese Equity Fund

Investment-Linked Policy Sub-Fund

August 2021

(Data as at end June 2021)

Fund objective

HSBC Insurance Chinese Equity Fund (the "ILP Sub-Fund") seeks long-term capital growth by investing primarily in a well diversified portfolio of investments in equity and equity equivalent securities of companies which have their registered office in, and with an official listing on a major stock exchange or other regulated market of the People's Republic of China ("China"), including Hong Kong SAR, as well as those companies which carry out a preponderant part of their business activities in China.

ILP Sub-Fund investments are made by way of a feeder fund, which invests substantially all or all its assets in the HSBC Global Investment Funds – Chinese Equity (Class AD-SGD) (the "Underlying Sub-Fund").

² Inception date : 25 January 2016

With effect from 30 June 2016, the benchmark of the ILP Sub-Fund has been changed from "MSCI AC China 10/40 Capped Net Total Index" to "MSCI China 10/40 Net". The reason for the change from the gross version to the net version of the benchmark is to present a more appropriate comparison, and to better align with the Fund Manager's global disclosures. The revised benchmark is applied to the performance data provided above across all periods.

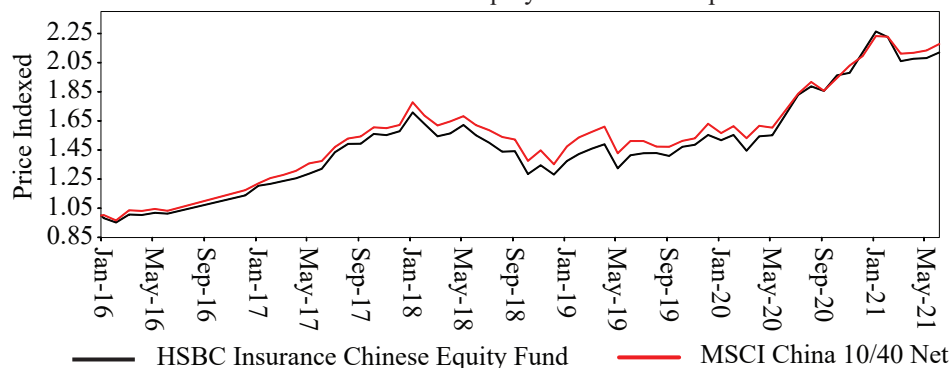

Note: The performance figures are calculated in Singapore Dollars using bid-to-bid prices, with any income or dividends reinvested. Fees and charges payable through deduction of premium or cancellation of units are excluded from this calculation. Investor should note that there is no guarantee on the capital and returns. The actual returns depend on the actual performance of the underlying investments. The past performance of the ILP Sub-Fund is not necessarily indicative of the future or likely performance of the ILP Sub-Fund.
