Profile	Description of Investor
Conservative	You are a conservative investor if you need a very secure income with no drastic change in the value of your investment. You do not accept much risk and may need the proceeds from your investment in the next few years.
Moderately Conservative	You are a moderately conservative investor if you need a stable income and expect small increases or decreases in value to gain modest growth.
Balanced	You are a balanced investor if you want a reasonable stable income, but also a steady growth in value. You are prepared for moderate decreases to achieve reasonable growth over the investment period.
Moderately Aggressive	You are a moderately aggressive investor if you have little or no need for a regular income from your investments. Your investment goal is to achieve potentially higher returns and so you are prepared to accept significant rises and falls in value.
Aggressive	You are an aggressive investor if you have little or no need for an income from your investments. Your investment goal is to achieve potentially higher returns over your investment period. You are prepared to accept drastic increases and decreases in value and may invest extra amounts when necessary.
